Together we can make Christmas 2020 and other seasonal festivities special!
There are various other festivals and celebrations at the end of 2020 and the start of 2021 when you may wish to celebrate different faiths and customs by:

- Organising a festive meal on board the vessel
- Arranging a team event on board
- Having an inter-ship competition
- Hosting a festive singalong or Karaoke session
- Becoming a quizmaster
- Screening film shows

8 December  BODHI DAY – Buddhist
Some Buddhists celebrate Gautama’s attainment of enlightenment under the Bodhi tree in Bodhgaya, North India.  Find out more

11–18 December  CHANUKAH – Jewish
Celebrates the rededication of the Jerusalem Temple recaptured from the Syrian Greeks by the Maccabees in 165 BCE. For eight evenings, candles are lit from right to left in a nine-branched hanukkiah with one additional candle for each evening. The ninth candle – the shamas (servant candle) – is used to light the other candles. Foods cooked with oil, such as doughnuts and latkes (potato cakes) symbolise the miracle of the oil. 21 December  WINTER SOLSTICE – Druid & YULE – Wiccan / Pagan
Yule is the time of the winter solstice, when the sun is reborn, an image of the return of all new life. Yule lasts for twelve nights and days, starting the evening before the winter solstice, remembering female ancestors and spiritual protectors to herald the start of the major Heathenry holiday. 31 December  OMISOKA – Japanese
A preparation for the new year by cleansing Shinto home shrines and Buddhist altars. Bells of Buddhist temples are struck 108 times to warn against the 108 evils to be overcome.  Find out more

31 December  HOGMANAY / NEW YEAR’S EVE
A celebration widely observed globally and especially in Scotland, where bagpipes, haggis and first footing are widespread. Some traditions are clearing one’s debts, cleaning the house and welcoming guests and strangers.  Party music to share

13–14 January  MAKAR SANKRANTI – Hindu
Makar Sankranti is one of the most important festivals of the Hindu calendar and celebrates the sun’s journey into the northern hemisphere, a period which is considered to be highly auspicious. There is a wide variation in the celebration of Makar Sankranti throughout India, in particular the name.  Find out more

12 February  LUNAR NEW YEAR – China, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Singapore
Lunar New Year, also called Spring Festival, is typically celebrated in China and other Asian countries that begins with the first new moon of the lunar calendar and ends on the first full moon of the lunar calendar, 15 days later. As the lunar calendar is based on cycles of the moon holiday dates vary slightly each year.  Find out more
ACCESS TO COMPANY OR OTHER SUPPORT HELPLINES FOR SEAFARERS

Many companies provide support helplines which seafarers are encouraged to access if necessary over the holiday period.

Additionally, the organisations listed below provide different useful services, including emotional support, and most are available 24 hours a day. International and regional helplines are available for seafarers wishing to talk to someone wherever they are in the world.

Please feel free to contact the helplines below for guidance or support by clicking on to the hyperlinks highlighted in Blue.
